About the Synod College and the Department of Education

Synod College, founded in 1965 by the Khasi Jaiñtia Presbyterian Church, was established to provide higher education to the youth of Northeast India. Managed by the Khasi Jaiñtia Presbyterian Synod Sepngi, it is registered under the Societies Registration Act and has been part of the University Grants Commission's 2f and 12(B) categories since 1973. Now a prominent institution in Meghalaya, Synod College has achieved high academic standards and received an A+ reaccreditation from NAAC in 2023.

The college offers undergraduate courses in Arts, Science, Commerce, and Computer Applications, serving over 3500 students from across the region. It provides essential support for students from rural areas. This year we will be celebrating 60 years of our existence and this seminar is part of the jubilee celebration of our beloved institution.

The Department of Education, initially catering to working students in evening shifts in 1965, expanded to include a day shift and postgraduate programs in 2019. Since introducing Honours and postgraduate courses, it has seen impressive achievements, including a 100% pass rate and students achieving distinctions. The department continues to evolve, reflecting the college's commitment to quality education and student success.

About NEIES

The North East India Education Society (NEIES) is a professional organization of teachers and educational workers established in 1989 with the main objective of promoting education in the states of North East India. The society has not only brought together education professionals in the region but has also extended its impact nationwide through membership. NEIES is committed to fostering learning opportunities in the region, focusing on current trends and issues by organizing conferences and harnessing the collective strength of its members for the cause of education on a broader scale across the country.
